Namaqualand Springs To Life

The Skilpad section of the Namaqua National Park will be open to visitors from 1 August until 30 September 2001. More than 120mm of rain was recorded in July and the fields of daisies, characteristic of Skilpad, are in bloom.

Facilities include a 5km circular drive in the flower viewing area, two short walking trails, a picnic area and ablution facilities. The park does not have accommodation or braai facilities.

Position: 22 km North-West of Kamieskroon off the N9, 500km North of Cape Town. Visitors must take the Kamieskroon turn-off.

- Entrance fees: R10 per person.
- Buses pay an additional R80.
- Opening times: 08:00 - 17:00 - 7 days a week.
